The Dimmer View

By MAX GOODWIN

One of our spies reported that a new street sign had been put up at the corner of Olive and Madison. The new sign bright and clean, reads Olive "Drive". Two blocks to the north the street sign reads Olive "Street" and at the corner of Massachusetts it reads Olive "Avenue".

I asked the County Public Works Department one question "why?". There was a rustling of paper and a call-back involved. The explanation as given by William Secor was simple and direct. "We made a mistake," he said, "and we'll rectify it."

The department is to be commended for such a realistic approach. Often governmental branches give double-talk and brow-beatings, expecting this to cover honest mistakes. Not so on this one. Secor said that Lemon Grove, having grown fast, had many subdivision maps filed that were in error as to the name of the streets. Lack of time and per-

L.G. GOES 'OVER TOP' IN UNITED FUND DRIVE

Dr. Simon Brumbaugh, Lemon Grove physician and president of the Lemon Grove Kiwanis Club became the contributor who put the Lemon Grove United Fund Drive over the top, Saturday.

In so doing, Dr. Brumbaugh made Lemon Grove the first east county community to reach its quota. The quota was $2,303. The contribution in the name of the Kiwanis Club put the end-of-the-week total at 2,308 for this community.

Mrs. Frank Armstrong is Lemon Grove area chairman.

At an all-Heartland area United Fund report luncheon held in La Mesa last week, Rabbi Morton J. Cohn, campaign chairman, stressed that campaign results in the next two weeks will determine whether San Diego County's nearly 100 health and welfare agencies can operate adequately next year.

"The calendar is our worst enemy right now, and it could beat us," Cohn warned. "This drive must be wound up successfully before the holiday season begins."

Cohn also reported that the

Miguel Cafeteria To Open Monday

Cafeteria workers of the Mt. Miguel High School are having an all-day cafeteria workshop today (Wednesday). District officers, principal Grant and other cafeteria specialists are working with the group. The cafeteria is scheduled to open on December 2.

The road north of the school and the parking lot in front are now under construction. Barring mad weather, there soon will be a place for all-weather parking and vehicle traveling.

Lights and heat are now practically a reality in all of the classrooms and facilities at Mt. Miguel.

The opening of the gymnasium will be delayed until after the Christmas vacation, reason being given as incomplete electrical installations, painting and floor finishing.

Borgerding Buys Br'dway Property

Change of ownership of four prominent Lemon Grove addresses was announced this week by Paul V. Borgerding, executive of the Borgerding Investment Company with offices in the Mission Valley Inn.

The property is at 7917-7923 Broadway, inclusive.

Tenants in the property include Karl's Shoes; Morrison-Adams, Jewelry; The Record Den, the Calder's Toy Town. Purchase price was not revealed.

Borgerding said that his firm had recently sold a piece of property at 12th and Broadway in San Diego and that retail-wise Lemon Grove looked better by comparison so his firm re-invested the money in Lemon Grove.

The property was purchased from L & P Investment Co. with Charles Kerch handling the transaction for Curtis Coleman Co.

More than 70 persons, most of them representing clubs and organizations in Lemon Grove, heard a detailed explanation of the Lemon Grove economic survey Wednesday evening of last week at San Miguel School.

The meeting was sponsored by the Development Committee of the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce. The committee is made up of representatives of all local groups. Purpose of the meeting was to channel information back to the local groups.

James O. Stevenson, director of the Los Angeles Bureau of Municipal Research was the speaker and he reiterated many of the statements he had made earlier in the month at a chamber of commerce meeting. He said again that it is impossible for Lemon Grove to remain as it is. More annexations are apparent until finally absorption is complete. Stevenson's firm made the survey.

He said that tax subventions (refunds) should pay for the cost of operating an incorporated community. He said he recommended incorporation over annexation to the City of San Diego because annexation would provide a government no less remote than county government. The maximum amount of property taxes allowed by state law in a sixth class city would be $1 per $100 assessed valuation, Stevenson said.

Chamber To Elect Four Directors

An election will be held by the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce December 5 at Michael's to name four members to serve three year terms commencing January 1.

Nominated are the following: F. R. Faucher, postmaster, Bill Parker, Pacific Tel. & Tel. Co. Jerry Howell, C. P. Appliances, John Burris, Lemon Grove Drug Co., L. W. Fritz, Fritz Shell Service, Kenneth Barwick, attorney, Bud Young, Bud Young's Chevron Station, Frank E. Thomas, Thomas & Mikkelsen.

Ballots will be mailed to members November 30. Holdover directors include:

Marshall Adams, Morrison-Adams, 1959, Bert A. Betts, Bert A. Betts & Co. 1958, Mrs. Connie Carlton, L. G. Spec. Purpose Foods, 1958 Thayer A. Crow physician & surgeon, D. O. 1959 Wallace D. Dorman, attorney, 1958, John S. Durham, Durham Insurance Agency, 1959, N. R. Flannery, L. G. Tire Co., 1959, John Hatz, Sprouse-Reitz Co., 1958, E. M. Newton, L. G. Stationers, 1959, Bill Paul, U. S. National Bank, 1959, George Scott, Walker-Scott Corp. 1958, Jim Spears, Spears Ford, 1959, R. G. Vaught, L. G. Camera, 1958.

Nary A Dribble! Water Works Office Moved

Helix Water Works offices were moved to the new Civic Center site at 8111 University Avenue in La Mesa (the corner of University Avenue and Date Street) Monday and not a drop was spilled. The district's telephone number will remain the same.

The new building contains 10,000 square feet of floor space and built at a cost of $162,000.

A new feature utilized in the building is the plastic luminous ceiling which provides lighting without glare or shadow. This is of advantage to the engineering and drafting departments which need good light for accurate drawings.

Another unusual idea is the "Six Zone" air conditioning system. This system actually operates like six independent air conditioners, circulating completely filtered air to one area while cooling another.

Fire Squad Revives Plumber

The Lemon Grove Fire Department's Resuscitator Squad under Captain Harry Alexander revived John Hays, a plumber employed by Coast Plumbing, 7303 Broadway Monday.

The squad responded when Hays was seized with a fit of coughing. He had previously been under a doctor's care following an operation.

He was sent to Grossmont Hospital by Fire Department physician, Dr. Thayer Crow. Hays lives at 834 Delta, San Diego.

OPERATION BOOKS — The Lemon Grove Woman's Club Juniors Build-A-Better-Community project for the year is "Operation Books," according to Mrs. Robert Bresnehan, chairman. Books are being collected by the club for Mt. Miguel High School and Vista La Mesa Elementary school libraries. Biographies, good non-fiction and science are needed. So are magazines dated July 1957 or later. Lending a helping hand are local scout groups.

BAG OF 500 SILVER DOLLARS TO BE GIVEN BY LOCAL SHOPS

There's going to be a mighty happy family in Lemon Grove on Monday before Christmas because that's when Lemon Grove business firms are going to give a bag of silver dollars, $500 in all, to some fortunate local shopper.

The project was developed by the Boosters Club, to which most local business and professional firms belong.

The way the bag of silver will be given is by coupons which are available at most local shops. There is nothing to buy, nothing to guess; you don't even have to be present to win. To be eligible, shopper writes his name and address on a coupon supplied by the merchant, and the coupon is dropped in a box.

Monday, December 23, at 7 p. m. at the Plaza, a local dignitary will reach into a huge box and pull out the lucky name. The public is invited to attend this ceremony. There will be other prizes, too, and these will be announced later.

Anyone may enter the competition and there is no limit as to the number of coupons that may be entered by any one person. Any local business firm that has not been contacted concerning the Bag-of-Silver and wants to know more about it should call this newspaper at HO 9-0101, or any local Booster.

The organization agreed also to underwrite the cost of putting up Christmas decorations along Broadway between Massachusetts and Kempf. Col. Robert Pulliam was put in charge of this project.

Two Grovans Injured In Mother Goose Parade Mishap

Two persons from Lemon Grove were among eleven at the Mother Goose Parade who were injured by a run-away horse last Sunday. The two Grovans were Vernal Wilkinson, Jr., 10, of 2431 Edgerton Drive, who received head injuries, and James Stevens, 45, of 7629 Circle Drive, who received back and arm injuries.

Other persons injured were Mrs. Mina Smith, 37, of 4695 Normandy Drive, La Mesa, who received a leg injury; Mrs. Huert Mullican of 3827 Fantieth St., San Diego, cuts and bruises; her son Dennis, 11, possible concussion, cuts and bruises; Paula Danforth, 11, of 2403 Wolcott, San Diego, a slashed artery in the left leg and a cut on the right foot; James Spencer, 2, of 5157 Naranja St., San Diego, possible foot fracture; Mrs. Elma Harris of 3558 Forty-second St., San Diego, possible leg fracture; Mary Ann Newman, 10, of 3228 Browning, San Diego, scratches; and Kathleen Halzbour, 2, of 5081 West Point Lo ma Boulevard, San Diego, cuts.

The horse, which had nothing to do with the parade, belongs to 14 year old John Bertschman of El Cajon. It was being boarded at an El Cajon stable. The horse possibly became excited by the noise

No Reduction In Taxes Seen By Assessor's Men

Lemon Grove Men's Club will be duk this week because of the Thanksgiving holiday. The club which meets each Friday ordinarily, hears representatives of the County Tax Assessor's office tell of a schedule by which Lemon Grove property will be revalued in 1958.

The speakers were Tommy Thompson, assistant chief appraiser, and Mark Morton, chief deputy appraiser who jointly explained the mechanics of the assessor's office operation. They said that assessed valuation should make no difference in the tax bill. If valuation were doubled, rates should be halved, they said. Rate is based on budgetary needs, they said.

The speakers offered no hope that a lower tax bill was in the offing but agreed to return prior to the Lemon Grove revaluation program.

John McQuilken, County Assessor was originally scheduled to make the talk but was called to Los Angeles on business.

The Men's Club meets at Michael's at noon and all men are invited. Bill Parker, manager of the Lemon Grove telephone facility in La Mesa presides.

ANGELS — Winged housewives, for the greater part, are these nine county women who may compete this year in the Twelfth Annual All-Woman Transcontinental Air Races. At the extreme left is Mrs. Roy Davis. At the extreme right is Mrs. R. B. Sanders. Both are registered as Lemon Grove pilots. Not in the photo is Mrs. Isabelle McCrea, also scheduled to be a starter. In the San Diego group, as in groups across the nation, the occupation is that of housewife mostly. As a matter of comparison the above women's occupations are: housewife, housewife, flight instructor, county employee, the next three are housewives, a flight instructor and a secretary.

COLLEGE GROVE DEVELOPERS PAY $100,000 FOR 7 MORE ACRES

Approximately 7 1/2 acres will be added to the 62-acre site of College Grove Center in East San Diego as the result of its purchase today (Friday, Nov. 22) from the State Division of Highways at a cost of $100,000. The minimum price set by the state.

Sale of the 7.28 acre tract, excess land owned by the state, was conducted at a public auction held on the site. The parcel is strategically located, with 600 feet adjacent to Freeway 94 and 500 feet frontage on the proposed City Park Road which will connect to the freeway via ramps. The purchase was made for the developers of College Grove Center, by Phillip Lyon, of Los Angeles, whose firm of the same name is leasing agent for the $14 million project which will contain more than 90 stories.

Acquisition of this additional acreage for the center means that in the initial phase of this development, which calls for 650,000 square feet of building area, we will have 5,487 parking spaces, or accommodation for better than 16,000 cars a day," Lyon said. "We have future plans to build a second department store and medical building which will increase the total area to 880,000 square feet of building, and at that time we will increase our parking to more than 6,000 car spaces. We are very pleased with this enlargement of the College Grove Center, as proper regard to customer parking is vital to the success of a center of this scope. "We are now ready to move forward, having held the start of construction in obedience pending disposition of the state-owned land."

The Walter-Scott Company department store will be the largest enterprise in the center and will be half again as large as its parent downtown store. The center is just west of Lemon Grove and about seven miles from the heart of the San Diego downtown business district.

Counselors Study Aptitude Testing

Counselors from Grossmont Union High School District's four high schools met November 21 at Grossmont with personnel from the State Employment Department. The meeting was to discuss and study the aptitude testing program given each year to all seniors.

These tests are given to score a person's abilities in 10 different fields. After the scores on these tests are studied by experts, they can tell the person tested what his chances for success in any occupation will be.

Counselors took one section of the test, saw how they are scored, and went through one set of scores to learn how tests can give a student an idea of his abilities.

Present to assist at the conference were Thomas O. Goodson, placement supervisor in the San Diego commercial office of the Department of Education; George Thurgood, interviewer in the Grossmont and Sweetwater Districts; Charles Davis, occupational analyst from Los Angeles; Dorothy Crenshaw, test technician of Los Angeles; Evelyn Margolis, older worker specialist, also of the Los Angeles office.

Like Avocados? — Here's How They're Made

For months we have been running articles on the care and harvesting of avocados. But there are a few things about this tasty fruit of which the general public are unaware. The Consumer Marketing Information sheet of the University of California has this to pass on to you:

The avocado, a native of Latin America, was found in 1519 by Enciso, a Spanish explorer. George Washington learned of the fruit and reported that the avocado was the most popular fruit in the Barbados Islands.

Avocados are an unusual member of the fruit family. They are neither sweet nor tart like most fruits—but have a distinctive creamy, nut-like flavor all their own. They have no starch—very little sugar, and still are an excellent source of food energy. They contain a highly digestible fruit oil but they are not "fattening."

Industry researchers discovered that half of an average avocado contains less than 150 calories. This compares with 117 calories for a large apple, 180 calories for 6 small fresh figs.

104 calories for ½ large grapefruit, and 106 for a large orange for example.

The avocado is also unusual for the amount of its protein content. The average content 2.1%, an unusual amount for fruits. If you are really calorie conscious you'll dress your avocados with a sprinkling of fresh lime or lemon juice—rather than a rich topping.

Home Decoration By Jaycees Contest Set

Bill Van Dusen of 9412 Crest Drive in Spring Valley, program chairman for the Lemon Grove Junior Chamber of Commerce stated today that J. Du Loung of Convalir will show in keeping with current events "The New Sound of Freedom" a documentary film, at the dinner meeting to be held at Michael's on Tuesday. Reverend Thurston Rock will deliver invocation for this dinner meeting. An open invitation was extended to all young men of Lemon Grove and Spring Valley to visit with the Jaycees at this meeting.

Members of the Lemon Grove Junior Chamber of Commerce started preparations this week for their traditional December event, JAY CEE Home Decoration contest which they sponsor every year.

Prizes will be awarded in this contest for the first three places and the first prize winner will have an opportunity to win county or nation wide prizes.

The Christmas decoration competition, chairmanned by H. S. Pete Byrne of 3420 Bancroft, Spring Valley will again stimulate the spirit of Christmas throughout the Lemon Grove area. During the season it will provide a pleasure for us to look at the gaily decorated homes.

In the home decoration contest, written entries must be filed with the Jaycees. Entry blanks will be available the first of December at local merchants or from the Lemon Grove Jaycees. There is no entry fee.

Three winners will be selected in the event and the top one will compete county wide and the winner in this competition will be entered in the national with prizes totaling more than $5,000. Byrne said decorations which must be outdoors and lighted, will be judged on originality, their artistic merit, and method of lighting. Deadline for the entries will be judging.

The REVIEW will carry details of the contest.

VACCINATION TERMED VITAL FOR DOG HEALTH

San Diego County dog owners who fail to have their dogs vaccinated against rabies are taking an unnecessary gamble, according to Dr. J. B. Askew, Director of the San Diego County Department of Public Health. He added that the stakes are high and pointed out that once rabies develops in an animal or human, the disease is always fatal.

"Dogs run a constant risk of exposure to rabies," Dr. Askew said. "Rabies is present in California wildlife, and in recent years the incidence of wildlife rabies has increased. The number of California wildlife rabies cases rose from 43 in 15 counties in 1954 to 166 cases in 31 counties in 1955 and 126 cases in 31 counties in 1956."

During the first 10 months of 1957, Dr. Askew said, the city of Los Angeles had 9 cases of animal rabies; Los Angeles County had 17; Ventura County had 11 and Orange County reported a rabid skunk only a month ago. In April of this year a man died of rabies in Orange County.

"This means that the danger of the disease occurring in San Diego County is near, and the threat is a very real one," Dr. Askew said. He added that there has not been a single case of rabies in San Diego County for more than three years.

"Rabies can be prevented," he said, "by the simple act of having dogs vaccinated against rabies. The Health Department urges every citizen who owns a dog to secure a vaccination of the family dog against rabies by a veterinarian as the only sound protection of family, pet and neighborhood."

L.G. Scientist Near Sun Energy 'Break-Thru'

A Lemon Grove man, Jerry Goodman, 7295 Central Avenue, who is a leading research scientist with the Pacific Air Force's "Operation Suntan" said that a breakthrough in space travel as a result of discoveries his group have made of a powerful new sun ray that could provide power source for space vehicles.

He made the announcement at the third annual worldwide Air Force Radar Evaluation Conference meeting at Hill Air Force Base near Ogden, Utah recently. The report was carried in the Ogden Standard-Examiner.

Goodman, 41 year old bachelor son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Goodman of the Lemon Grove address, said that his group's research into the field of solar radiation "has discovered what may well be the stairway to the stars." Goodman has been assigned with the Pacific Air Force Operation Suntan Okinawa.

"Speaking cautiously," the article stated, "and under the wraps of security regulations, Goodman was not permitted to reveal full details of his findings. He did say that the powerful sun ray, invisible to the human eye and detectable only by radar, is a tremendous force with unlimited potential as a source of power if a means of utilizing it can be found."

Goodman said Air Force scientists are on the threshold of finding the means of converting this ray, which is electromagnetic in nature, to a source of power.

The results of these experiments tend to further prove and are apparently an outgrowth of Einstein's theory of mass attraction. "We have had the theory for some time but now we are proving it and finding means of putting it to beneficial use," Goodman said.

As a background for the discovery it was said that in 1955, newly developed radar equipment of high selectivity picked up what was regarded as nuisance interference from unknown source. At first it was believed to be originating from Czechoslovakia but investigation proved the source of interference to be the sun. With this information the Air Force started Operation Suntan with the mission to investigate solar radiations and the possibility of eliminating its interference on radar.

As the investigations progressed, Operation Suntan scientists found that the solar radiations could be put to beneficial use. The exact cause of the interference was pinpointed with the discovery of the powerful and heretofore unknown sunray and its potential source of power.

Goodman told his conferences that before the ray can be harnessed as a source of power for space travel, its influence on humans and space craft must be determined. Considerable research is also being done in this field, he said.

Some of the benefits stemming from Suntan's research is the ability to predict, by radar, development and movement of typhoons, hurricanes and other storms.

Goodman is presently back on Okinawa further developing "Operation Suntan."

Heartland Division was setting a pace which could lead to sure success if other areas do as well.

In praising results of the non-geographic drive which had reached 70 percent of quota so far, Cohn singled out public service groups and the area's dentists for special acclaim.

Public units reported collections of $3,680 for a substantial margin over its goal of $3,000. Tom Parks of El Cajon reported for Tom Lean of La Mesa, Heartland Public Units chairman. The efforts of La Mesa City employees received special recognition.

Professional Division results were reported at 67 percent of goal by Dr. Robert Austin, chairman, who praised the dentists for exceeding their fund campaign quota under the leadership of Dr. Phillip Taylor.

Commerce and Industry Division, led by Robert Simoneau, reported collections at 69 percent of their goal.

Reporting for the Fund's gigantic geographic drive, Mrs. Kenton C. Lint, chairman, gave special praise to Lemon Grove who had at that time attained a dizzy 96.9 percent of their $2,303 goal, and to La Mesa for reaching 88 percent of their $7,961 quota.

Relatives Of Local Families Die In Wreck

A retired Encinitas attorney and his wife, with two relatives in Lemon Grove, were killed near Turlock Saturday.

The man, Maurice M. Myers, 73, and his wife Ethel Sara, 67, were killed when their car veered off Highway 99 and hit a tree. Highway Patrol officers said Myers, the driver might have suffered a heart attack.

In Lemon Grove, Myers' sister, Mrs. Edith Veliquette, 2351 Cypress Avenue, and Mrs. Veliquette's daughter, Mrs. Paul Tilton, 2895 Orange Place, said that in the event would be at Oak Park Cemetery, Claremont, California. Services are scheduled for December 5.

Mrs. Veliquette said that Myers, a widower, had gotten married last month. The couple was enroute to Tacoma to visit his bride's family for Thanksgiving.

Workshop Planned For Woman's Club

The garden section of the Lemon Grove Woman's Club will meet Tuesday at 10 a.m. for a workshop at the home of Mrs. D. D. Laissey, 8285 Palm Street. A pot-luck luncheon will follow at 12:30 at the Woman's Club clubhouse.

Members are requested to bring their own table service and cards for games which will follow the luncheon.

Rummage Needed To Aid Choir Robe Fund

Make room for the Christmas holidays while helping the local high school, says Mrs. C. F. Baxter, chairman of the Concert Choir Robe Committee.

She requests that all rummage be brought to Mt. Miguel High School by Friday if possible, but it will be accepted until December 5. It will even be picked up if the donor calls HO 6-5321.

Sale will be conducted at Lemon Grove Youth Center December 6 from 8:30 to 5. Proceeds will be used to purchase choir robes.

son reported. He said the taxes now paid locally are equivalent to 94c.

Stevenson defended his survey's indication that the average income per Lemon Grove family is $7,250 a year. "This includes two, three and sometimes four employed persons in a residential unit or 'family', he stated.

A "no-time-limit" question period was provided and representatives of each organization were called by roll to speak or ask questions.

The Development Committee then charged its membership with getting an expression from its parent organization and reporting back so that the Development Committee can make a report to the chamber of commerce at the chamber's December 5 meeting.

Dr. Robert Swenson presided at the meeting. W. Earl Smart is president of the chamber of commerce.

"Avoid large prints and bold stripes; black without too much sheen may be worn. Medium tones in all colors televise accurately."

Community Housewarming To Be Given For Andrew Jensen

Friends and neighbors will hold a "housewarming" Sunday for Andrew Jensen, 77, at his rebuilt home at 8225 Adams Street.

Jensen's house burned down June 3. Since then he has had to sell off part of his property to pay for the rebuilding since he carried no insurance.

To add to the hardship, Jensen also had to provide a home for his large assortment of birds and animals. His birds include an emu, big as an ostrich, bantams, bare-necked chickens from Europe, three kinds of guinea fowl—pearl, white and pink as well as the conventional types of barnyard denizens. Jensen and his birds have been a Lemon Grove landmark since 1922. A bachelor from Hamburg, Germany, Jensen has never made a profit on his birds. He raises them because he likes them.

He likes children, too. A great number of youngsters who looked to Mr. Jensen for advice and information will attend the housewarming for they like him and his birds as well. Neighbors say the final authority in the Adams Street area is "Mr. Jensen says..."

When his house was gutted by fire in June his neighbors collected $150 among Jensen's friends. He has been living in a trailer on his acre home site ever since, looking after his birds and the neighboring kids. He sold off enough property to rebuild the house and used the $150 to buy furniture.

His neighbors are giving the housewarming for him. They are baking cakes and supplying coffee, and they will stand with Jensen as he is greeted by his many friends in the newly rebuilt little cottage from 3 to 6 p.m. Sunday.

Rather than to track down each of Jensen's friends individually, his neighborhood asked this newspaper to extend the invitation to everyone.

With the spirit of Thanksgiving abounding, it couldn't come at a better time, nor happen to a nicer man, his neighbors say.

The flight is co-sponsored by the San Diego Chapter of Ninety-Nines Inc., an international organization of licensed women pilots and the City of San Diego. The San Diego Chamber of Commerce and the Convention and Tourist Bureau are also backing the project.

Approximately 50 aircraft with nearly 100 women pilots will take off, seconds apart, for their transcontinental flight. They have four days in which to make the flight but most of them will make it in less time, depending on winds and weather.

The first aircraft to land is not necessarily the winner. Each pilot is flying against a "par speed" handicap and the winner will be the pilot who gets the best performance out of her aircraft.

Designated stop is Yuma, Tucson, El Paso, Midland, Abilene, Tyler, Jackson, Montgomery and Macon. Macon is a "must" stop where the pilot signs an official log book but she need not stop at the other points unless she wishes. This depends on range and performance of their particular aircraft.

Last year the flight started from San Carlos, California, but no local entrant marked.

The Dimmer View

sonnel have contributed to projecting these errors.

All of this comes mighty close to being Democracy in Action!

The Lemon Grove Development Committee has completed, for the most part, its function as advisory to the chamber of commerce in the matter of disseminating information concerning the economic study made by the Los Angeles Bureau of Municipal Research. The committee will poll its members and make a report to the chamber by December 5 if all goes well.

"All of this is a reshuffle of what's been printed in these columns for a number of weeks. One thing that is worthy of note is the manner in which the meetings were conducted. Dr. Robert Swenson presided over these meetings with unruffled firmness and sincerity, lending the dignity to these gatherings that was sorely needed at some of the meetings held a couple of years ago when the community's future was being discussed.

Regardless of the outcome of the studies I think the civic community owes Bob Swenson a debt of gratitude. And I recommend to those seventy who attended the meeting last week at San Miguel School that you take a moment to call or write him in appreciation of a distinguished performance.

I want to give a pat-on-the-back to our good neighbor Gabe Herrera, a cement contractor who lives at 7850 Lester Avenue, next to our newspaper shop.

Gabe made the mistake of dumping a load of black top at the front property line of his address on a street lined with pot-holes. Some of us know it is near impossible to get those pot-holes filled unless we do it ourselves.

Every morning, as I come to work, I see shovel marks in Gabe's diminishing pile of black-top. I also see the black patches covering many of the pot-holes. I asked Gabe if he was doing the patchwork on the street and he said "no".

"Do you know they're taking your blacktop a couple of shovels-full at a time?" I snatched.

"That's what I put it up front for," Gabe said.

Then I took some too. Then someone else, enthused by the charitable atmosphere, walked off with Gabe's brand-new, king-sized trash can that he had put out the same week near the pile of black top.

This guy is making it tough on some of the rest of us to get in on a free deal.

I don't know why the government thinks it has such a splendid new idea in creating interest in science among the nation's scholars.

We thought of it last year, in January, when this newspaper sponsored a science award among our grade school students. We got the Lemon Grove Lions Club and Lemon Grove Jaycees to join with us. The schools sent a group of youngsters to Palomar and we gave four trophies for the best "papers" turned in.

As we recorded it, the trophies were won by Gary Lee Thompson, 7231 Blackton Drive; Jean Leoncio, 7602 Circle Drive; Carol Foster, 1490 Skyline, and Kenny Van Dyke, 2721 Washington Avenue, all of Lemon Grove. That's Lemon Grove's answer to Sputnik.

Boy Pumped For Deadly Pills

Two year old Raymond Ogden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Ogden of 3520 James Circle, Spring Valley, narrowly escaped death last Monday after he swallowed four pain pills.

His mother Ann, had taken the pills down from their usual place, high up in a cupboard and put them on a table. At that time company arrived and the pills were forgotten. Within a period of five minutes Raymond had swallowed the pills.

At 9:27 a. m. Mrs. Ogden had called the Spring Valley Fire Department. The department's ambulance crew answered the call and the boy was rushed to Grossmont Hospital where his stomach was pumped out. Mrs. Ogden said later the pills speed up the heart action. Two of the pills are enough to kill a person, she said.

of the parade, said Leroy Hunter, manager of the stable. He said John Bartschman was holding the horse by a rope, trying to calm him, but the horse broke out and ran away. He ran down East Main Street, heading into the path of the oncoming parade, and scattered spectators over quite an area. The horse finally ran back to the stable where he was captured.

Besides the eleven injured by the horse there were seven others treated for different injuries, reported the police.

A. D. Cardinet, a drummer in the Shrine Band was given oxygen at Grossmont Hospital after he passed out from heat exhaustion; firemen treated L. N. Knock of La Mesa for a nervous condition; and 83-year old man was found in a car with the windows rolled up, and was overcome with the heat; two women, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Butler were also overcome with the heat.

As in all large gatherings, children are bound to get lost, the Mother Goose Parade crowd was no exception. Police reported they had found at least 12 lost children.
